

I never listen to local radio, it is a joke with loud and dumb DJ's and the same old music. Their traffic reports are here and there but with XM you get it all the time. It has saved me a number of times when there was an accident and I was able to take a different route to get home or to work. Leave it alone and look to the future, the only thing you get on local radio are commercials after commercials.